Grand Regency Ball	7:30-11:30pm	Grand Regency Ball - dance or enjoy the spectacle  Divine period music including many Tasmanian pieces, by Van Diemen's Angels (harp, piano, fiddle and flute)  Dancing Master David Wanless will lead you through an evening of fun and lively dances. No partner or dancing experience required, though attending the morning workshop would make it even more fun. Dress in something period or formal if you can.	St James Church Hall, as above	$18/$16/$15 /$9
Sunday 1st December
Regency House and Garden Party	10:30am-4pm, with possible after party	A day of Regency activities, fine food and tea at the historic Glen Derwent Heritage Retreat in the lovely Derwent valley. Your ticket includes all-day delicious period sweet and savoury food and hot and cold drinks as well as Regency dancing, live music, croquet, historic tours, maypole dancing, draught horses and historic carts to view and period games to play. Period attire admired but not required.	Glen Derwent Heritage Retreat, 44 Hamilton Rd, New Norfolk	$45/$39/$30 /$15
Monday 2nd December
TasContra Dance	7:30-9:30pm	Our regular contra dance, which although not Regency dancing is great fun, and we will do one or two "chestnut" contras which are versions of Regency dances. Live music by Moonshine Whiskers and the Ragged Pony.	St James Church Hall, as above	$10/$8

Discounted weekend and early bird tickets are available.

There are many other lovely things to do in Hobart and surrounds. Some places to visit with some Regency relevance are Port Arthur, the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery or simply wandering through Battery Point.
