

Derwent Regency Festival - 29th Nov - 1st Dec 2019

Draft programme - subject to minor changes

Tickets: trybooking.com/BDTES

Details: folktas.org/regency

Session and discounted weekend tickets are available.

ACTIVITY	TIME	DESCRIPTION	LOCATION	PRICE
Friday 29th November
Georgian and Regency Evening at Narryna Heritage Museum	5-7:30pm	Regency costume showings, botanical drawings exhibition, tours of Narryna house (1830s merchant house), refreshments in the garden, maypole dancing and live music, meet and greet other festival goers	Narryna Heritage Museum, 103 Hampden Rd, Battery Point	$15
Possible communal dinner	7:30pm+	Let us know if you are interested	A restaurant in Battery Point or Salamanca	Pay the venue
Saturday 30th November
Regency Dance Workshop	11:30am-1:30pm (time to visit Salamanca Markets beforehand)	With live period music and Dancing Master David Wanless. Learn or refresh the basics of Regency dancing for the evening ball, or just have fun with some easy Regency dances. No partner or dancing experience required. Note that you are welcome to attend the evening ball whether or not you have attended this workshop.	St James Church Hall, 462 Elizabeth St, New Town (off Rupert Ave, opposite Blue Gum, behind church)	$10/$8
Intermediate Regency and Georgian Dances	2:30-4:30pm	With live period music and Dancing Master David Wanless. Have fun with a variety of lively dances, some for the evening ball and some just because they're exciting dances. No partner or dancing experience required but if you can make it to the earlier workshop first that would be good. Learn Mundy's Quadrille for an informal display at the ball.	St James Church Hall, as above	$10/$8
Grand Regency Ball	7:30-11:30pm	Grand Regency Ball - dance or enjoy the spectacle  Divine period music including many Tasmanian pieces, by Van Diemen's Angels (harp, piano, fiddle and flute)  Dancing Master David Wanless will lead you through an evening of fun and lively dances. No partner or dancing experience required, though attending the morning workshop would make it even more fun. Dress in something period or formal if you can.	St James Church Hall, as above	$18/$16/$15 /$9
Sunday 1st December
Regency House and Garden Party	10:30am-4pm, with possible after party	A day of Regency activities, fine food and tea at the historic Glen Derwent Heritage Retreat in the lovely Derwent valley. Your ticket includes all-day delicious period sweet and savoury food and hot and cold drinks as well as Regency dancing, a new play by the Derwent Valley Players, live music, croquet, historic tours, maypole dancing, convict bonnets project, roses, peacocks and heritage sheep to view in the gorgeous grounds and period games to play. Period alcoholic drinks available at bar prices. Period attire admired but not required.	Glen Derwent Heritage Retreat, 44 Hamilton Rd, New Norfolk	$45/$39/$30 /$15
Monday 2nd December
TasContra Dance	7:30-9:30pm	Our regular contra dance, which although not Regency dancing is great fun, and we will do one or two "chestnut" contras which are versions of Regency dances. Live music by Moonshine Whiskers and the Ragged Pony.	St James Church Hall, as above	$10/$8

Discounted weekend and early bird tickets are available.

There are many other lovely things to do in Hobart and surrounds. Some places to visit with some Regency relevance are Port Arthur, the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery or simply wandering through Battery Point.

Cathy and David, 03 6273 2127, folkdancetas@gmail.com

Folk Federation of Tasmania Inc, folktas.org/regency

Facebook/Meetup: Dance Folk Tasmania