2020 FFT SONG AND TUNE WRITING AWARDS

"for an original song or tune in traditional or contemporary folk style"

- These awards are made to encourage creative music writing in Tasmania.
- An independent panel of judges will announce the major awards at a concert on Saturday 7th November at Fern Tree Tavern (subject to coronavirus restrictions)- the November event of the Kunanyi Folk Club.
- The concert will feature the finalists. The decision will be made before the night but not announced until during the concert. A People's Choice award will be decided on the night.

Prizes total $1000. There are three categories, plus a People's Choice on the night of the concert:

- Mike Silverwood Memorial Song Writing Award $250
- Instrumental (Tune) Award $250
- Under 19 Song or Instrumental Award – two prizes of $200 each
- People's Choice Award $100

Eligible songs and tunes must be composed by a resident of Tasmania and must not have been entered in any other competition. They should be suitable for performance at the live concert. A composer can select a performer of their choice. All entrants are encouraged to perform at the concert as this is a significant showcase of the diversity of Tasmanian folk music.

Entries are to be submitted by Friday, 2nd October, by email of mp3 file (not standard iPhone format) plus wordprocessed/txt documents of title and lyrics (don't include artist's name on song lyrics). Send to awards@folktas.org. For the digitally challenged, you may send your entry on a CD, clearly showing the name of the entry, with name, address, and telephone number, to Peter Hicks, 132 Summerleas Rd, Fern Tree Tas 7054. Please include two copies of the song lyrics (without the artist's name on them).

Entries will be judged on the submitted recording only. Please indicate if performer is not the composer. Standard of music recording is not a barrier but judges will find it easier to judge if you have a recording that is easier to listen to without background noise etc.

Tasmanian themes are strongly encouraged. There is a preference for simple arrangements – e.g., one guitar/instrument plus vocal.

Entry fee is $10 per piece, but it is free if current member of FFT*. Payment by cheque or by direct transfer to BSB: 633 000, Acct: 149 267 056, Name: Folk Federation of Tasmania, Bank: Bendigo with a description/memo of your surname and an email to awards@folktas.org confirming payment.

*Annual Membership costs $25 individual, $30 household. If you are taking out membership rather than paying the entry fee, please CC treasurer@folktas.org with your address. You will receive the members' magazine, Drumbeat, or you may request an electronic version.

Limit of 2 pieces per person. Judging criterion is that the song or tune fits comfortably into the "folk genre". Generally this means acoustic pieces – but special consideration will be given to whether or not the song or tune fits into the "tradition of folk music" be that Celtic, Balkan, Anglo, American or good old Australian styles. Catchy or memorable tunes are preferred especially if the tune fits well with the theme of the lyric if submitting a song. Further information: ring Peter on 0409 216 752.

Judges' decisions will be final and no discussion or correspondence will be entered into.
